

Masayuki Ozaki MD PhD

Short Biography

Education:

1998 MD, University of Occupational and Environmental Health

2010 PhD, University of Occupational and Environmental Health

Board certifications:

Board Certified Intensive Care Physician for the Japanese Society of Intensive Care Medicine

Board Certified Supervisory Physician for Public Health and Social Medicine (Japan)

Experience:

1998-2004

Combined occupational health/perioperative medicine residency, University of Occupational and Environmental Health

2004

Staff anesthesiologist, University of Occupational and Environmental Health

2005-2009

Occupational health physician, Toray Industries.

2010-2018

Critical Care Physician, Intensive Care Unit, St. Marianna University Hospital

2018-2020

Assistant Professor, Medical Intensive Care Unit, Nagoya University Hospital

2020-present

Director, Intensive Care Unit, Komaki City Hospital

Title

“Coping with medical personnel burnout; a chance for promoting occupational health and safety in healthcare.”